Questions #3 and #4

Date Started	Please give us a little information about yourself.	Where have you gotten lost?
10/19/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Schneider Hall, Knauss
10/19/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	within buildings such as wood
10/19/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	All campus buildings, poor signage
10/19/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Brown Building, Schneider Building
10/19/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Ellsworth, Sprau, Friedman
10/19/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	I used to confuse Wood, Knauss, and Kohrman. I'm still not sure which residence halls are which. All of the buildings need better signage and we need more and better campus maps posted around.
10/20/2010	WMU graduate or former student	Sangren
10/20/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Where haven't I gotten lost? => Thankfully, there are VERY nice campus maps. I carry one with me.
10/20/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Trying to get from one side of main campus to the other side. The ring road is not very well marked and as the saying goes you can't get there from here. I have been told that the road that goes by Seibert will be closed when Sangren is completed, that will cause more problems getting around.
10/20/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	newer buildings where I have not yet spent a lot of time
10/20/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	I was in Wood Hall for the first time in a long time and couldn't figure out the room numbering to find where I was going. When I was on the campus of Engineering and Applied Sciences, it takes me a while to recall the A-E sequence and the fact that there are groups of room numbering in that building.

Questions #3 and #4

Date Started	Please give us a little information about yourself.	Where have you gotten lost?
10/20/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	In the Engineering building
10/20/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Mostly with the construction it has been more difficult to get around.
10/20/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	It is like any new place you need to learn where things are and the best way to get there. Sangren, Henry Hall, Ellsworth
10/20/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Buildings, numbers do not make sense.
10/20/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Driving towards Fetzer Center, I thought I could take it to Sindecuse, but it was a dead end, and I don't believe I saw any sign saying so. The buildings were/are sometimes hard to find. I am disappointed that the building doors do not have the building name on them like my Alma Mater. Buildings should have a list of the floor plan with room locations. I have had many students ask where such and such a room is, but if there was a floor plan with room numbers on it, students could use this to get where they need to go (I understand, however, that this is not always a good idea, especially with terrorist possibilities (i.e. providing a shooter with exact room locations may not be a good idea, but that is not the intention I am making here)). Walking on campus I've taken the long way around buildings because I thought I could get somewhere, specifically behind McCracken walking towards Wood Hall, I thought I could get to the Miller Ramp Parking lot, but I got lost and had to double track. Once I found Waldo Library I knew where I was again. I think most of my problem is that when I first came here to work I was overwhelmed by the expanse of the ca I think most of my problem is that when I first came here to work I was overwhelmed by the expanse of the campus. I think that ALL new hires to the University should be offered a campus tour as part of the hiring process (going so far as to say making it mandatory). I think that would help me a lot to know where things are by taking a campus tour.
10/20/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Wood Hall, Sangren Hall
10/20/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Ellsworth, Moore, Knauss, old Sangren

Questions #3 and #4

Date Started	Please give us a little information about yourself.	Where have you gotten lost?
10/21/2010	Currently a student at WMU	I have gotten lost in Dunbar and Kohrman Hall trying to find South Kohrman.
10/21/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	The Kohrman hall with the art side and the non-art portion is confusing. There are numbers on the same floor that are identical and unless you know there are two distinct parts, it is confusing.

10/22/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	College of Health and Human Services driving and walking through the building; Sangren Hall room numbering is very confusing, hopefully that will change with the new building.
10/22/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Trying to find buildings...are there signs anywhere?? Driving the 'ring' road with its many curves and turnoffs Offices are spread out and not centralized by buildings or areas.
10/22/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Around Miller and the fine arts area of the campus. Easy to get lost in Sangren - happy that's being rebuilt.
10/22/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Kohrman, Walwood, Sangren

10/28/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Burnhams, Davis Hall areas.
11/3/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Sangren! I also get confused about various residence halls. Most driving issues stem from trying to figure out where (if) there will be an open meter near where building I need to visit.
11/4/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Health and Human Services Building! Dalton Center Richmond Center Friedmann
11/4/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Sangren, admin building
11/4/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Near the library and surrounding buildings.
11/4/2010	Currently a student at WMU	Wood.
11/5/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Sangren - room numbers confusing.
11/5/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	trying to find employee parking spots
11/5/2010	Currently a student at WMU	Now that Sangren is under construction, its been a little more difficult to make my way around the building.
11/9/2010	Currently a student at WMU	My first time on WMU's campus was for the Medallion Scholarship, and the Chem. Building was still under construction. I still to this day have no idea how we walked from the Bernhard Center to Schneider, but I haven't had a single issue finding this on campus since my second day of Fall Welcome. When people ask for walking directions, it's pretty easy to guide them from the flagpoles, because they're kind of like the hub of campus with three or four spokes.
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Center of Campus, trying to find different buildings.
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Around Miller Auditorium
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Sangren

Questions #3 and #4

Date Started	Please give us a little information about yourself.	Where have you gotten lost?
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Any visitor would be confused by the mishmash of sidewalks between Waldo and Friedmann. There need to be (possibly small, certainly tasteful) signs offering direction to Friedmann, Knauss, Sprau, Moore, dorms, and so on when one exits the library steps. Ditto for leaving Waldo in the opposite direction. The same is true for all information relating to the various sub-theatres in the Gilmore complex. I had tickets for something called the York Arena Theater. I had to call and ask the box office for directions because no where, not on the internet, not on the interactive campus map, not on street level signs, is there any mention of the Shaw, Williams, or York Arena theaters' physical location. Which happens to be inside the Gilmore Theatre complex, but that is stated and posted no place. One of the worst offenders is actually inside the Friedmann, Dunbar, Knauss complex. Some secretary finally got tired of giving directions, it's clear, because she went so far as to stick up colored paper signs with arrows indicating which way is which to the several buildings. You can see those signs on the third floor of Friedmann, opposite the elevators, where th You can see those signs on the third floor of Friedmann, opposite the elevators, where there's a bridge leading to Knauss. There should be clean, professional looking directional signs like that in all three buildings, on all the floors, so that tacky colored paper signs can be taken down.
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Wood Hall
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Dunbar, Knaus, Sangren
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Many of the campus buildings don't have good internal signage so it's difficult to find rooms and/or offices. Wood Hall is improved with the signage.
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	McCracken Hall
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	in Sangren signage was bad and hall way numbering made no sense. Hope this will be fixed in the new building.
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Interior buildings/offices are not very marked.
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Wood Hall
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	Sangren Bernhard center
11/9/2010	WMU retiree or emeritus	Inside some of the newer buildings or remodeled older structures
11/9/2010	Currently faculty or staff at WMU	1) Going to Facilities Management on east campus. Can I take the new Oliver St. from Stadium toward Oakland? 2) Finding parking for the AAUP building 3) The traffic round-about by Trimpe/Parking Services is way dangerous 4) Walking from Sprau to Fetzner ... a nightmare. 5) Put names on the buildings, for crying out loud.
